CNF Technologies Corporation Selected For "San Antonio's Fast Track Companies"

SAN ANTONIO (13 August 2012) – CNF Technologies Corporation, a premier systems engineering company for the government, military, and corporate markets, announced today that they have been honored with recognition as one of “San Antonio's Fast Track Companies” for 2012.

Appearing in the July, 2012 issue of the San Antonio Business Journal, CNF Technologies was named the sixth fastest-growing business overall (2nd in the $4-$16 million category) with over 65% compounded revenue growth over the past three years (2009-2011). This marks the second consecutive year that CNF Technologies has been recognized as a Fast Track company. Last year, CNF was named seventh overall and third in the “under $4 million” category. Founded in 2005, CNF has steadily increased in employees and revenue each year. This year’s honor is even more significant, as it points to the success and longevity of the company.

CNF’s Founder and CEO, Fred Ramirez commented on the recognition: "This is another big honor for us. Anytime your hard work is acknowledged, it allows the opportunity to thank and commend the employees that make it possible. The fact that San Antonio Business Journal included CNF Technologies in its recent selection of ‘San Antonio's Fast Track Companies,’ shows that we have put together the right team of professionals and that our clients recognize there outstanding work."

Following the publication of CNF Technologies' selection for San Antonio Business Journal's San Antonio's Fast Track Companies list, American Registry seconded the honor and added CNF Technologies to the "Registry of Business Excellence™".

The Fast Track 2012 is the Business Journal’s annual listing of the fastest-growing companies in San Antonio, TX and identifies the best companies across a wide variety of industries including technology, financial services, health care and government. This year, 27 businesses were selected through a survey tallied by certified public accounting firm BDO and recognized at an awards banquet hosted by the sponsors of Fast Track.
