CNF Principal's 10 Year Anniversary

SAN ANTONIO Dec. 9, 2017— Mr. Fred Ramirez, Founder of CNF Technologies, recognized Mr. Jason Garcia during the CNF Annual Holiday Party for his ten-year work anniversary. “Jason is an exemplar employee”, said Fred Ramirez, Founder of CNF Technologies. “We brought him on for an entry-level position shortly after he obtained his CS [Computer Science] degree from UTSA. Over the course of the last ten years, Jason has quickly progressed, excelling in numerous positions, amassing an invaluable skill-set in full spectrum cyber operations, and has distinguished himself through his expertise and leadership”.

Today, Jason is a Principal at CNF Technologies. As a company Principal, Jason is part of the senior management team and oversees five multimillion-dollar Department of Defense contracts ranging from system accreditation to the very forefront of analyzing and reverse engineering the latest and most advanced malicious logic. Jason is also the “go to” subject matter expert for the Air Force cyber intelligence squadron providing technical support to solving the most dangerous security vulnerability exposures and providing expertise in reverse engineering malware.

“Jason is a highly valued member of the CNF Leadership Team, his strong work ethic, service, and dedication [to customer mission, team, and CNF] is the epitome of the CNF culture”

—Roxanne Ramirez, CEO of CNF Technologies
