CNF's CEO Honored at the 2017 SABJ C-Suite Awards

SAN ANTONIO 20 September 2017 – CNF's Chief Executive Officer, Mrs. Roxanne Ramirez was honored at the San Antonio Business Journal's C-Suite Awards Ceremony.

Hosted by the renowned McNay Art Museum, the SABJ C-Suite Awards Ceremony was filled with companies and executives from all over the city. All gathered to recognize and honor this year's elite executives. The recipients came from many different industries and backgrounds but all had one thing in common, excellent leadership skills. Mrs. Ramirez, a leader and recognized advocate for women in STEM, was amongst the top CEOs being honored. Mrs. Ramirez works tirelessly to expand women's role in STEM, and dedicates her time and resources to educating and encouraging women to explore and pursue careers in cybersecurity and computer science. Since assuming her role as CEO in January 2016, CNF has experienced significant and steady growth and was recognized as a Top Cybersecurity provider in San Antonio and at the SABJ 2017 Fast Track Awards.

"It was an honor to be recognized amongst San Antonio's Top Executives. This is only the beginning, CNF will continue to grow, providing innovative solutions, careers in our community, and developing cyber professionals and leaders right here in San Antonio"
